

I. Program Sign-up Form [July to September 2009]

artsparks at the library is a literary and performing arts program for persons with disabilities and the community. We wish to connect our participants to artists and arts organizations throughout Red Deer because we feel that getting involved in the arts is a good way to make us feel happy and well.

Personal Safety

Some of the things you will be doing with artsparks may be dangerous. Everyone who joins artsparks must be responsible for anything bad that happens by accident and is not the fault of Red Deer Public Library, artsparks, or any teachers who are helping out. If something special for safety is supposed to be worn then you agree to put it on and take care to follow the instructions. When you sign this form, you agree to take all care to make yourself safe and to wear any special clothing or use special equipment that will help keep you safe.

I, _____ understand and am informed of the things we will be doing in the program I am signing up for, and understand the possible dangers of participating as well as the safety steps that must take be taken, and wish to join the above program(s).
